FUGITIVE'S LAWYERS PUT HIS FATE UP TO HIMSELF

Because four of the men who aided Harry Thaw in his escape from Mattawan have not been paid in full and Richard J. Butler, the man who has the money, cannot be located, the inside facts of the conspiracy which resulted in Thaw's temporary freedom are likely to come to light before many hours. Roger Thompson, in jail at Sherbrooke, Quebec, is threatening to tell all he knows, and Michael O'Keefe, Eugene J. and Thomas Flood, who are in hiding near New York, threaten to come back Tuesday and "blow the whole works."

Butler promised his four assistants $1,000 a piece. He paid them $500 each in Beacon, N. Y., last Saturday, twelve hours before the escape was accomplished. The balance was to be paid in New York the following Monday, but by Monday The Evening World had discovered the identity of the plotters. Thaw, Thompson and Flood were lost up in Maine trying to find the way into Canada and Butler had gone into hiding. It is not known whether or not Butler has all the money that was to be paid for the job. BUTLER MAY NOT HAVE BEEN FULLY PAID.

Butler got half in advance, according to men who say they know what happened. He hurried back to New York Sunday night to collect the remainder. If the man who was to pay Butler was found he paid, because Butler collects. A letter written by Roger Thompson from Sherbrooke to a friend in this city was received today. In this letter Thompson says:

"I want to be sure about getting my money. I asked Thaw for it and he told me Butler would pay me. Thaw refers everybody to Butler."

It had been supposed that Butler and Duffy were together. This is denied by friends of Duffy. They say that Duffy and O'Keefe are together, hiding in a safe place in New Jersey, and that neither has heard from Butler. Flood is somewhere in the vicinity of New York and has communicated with members of his family. A friend took his car out of the International garage

Lawyers Put Thaw's Fate Up to Him for Orders

(Special from a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)
SHERBROOKE, Que., Aug. 23.—Harry Thaw, according to his lawyers, among whom are some of the most prominent members of the Canadian bar, will be allowed to settle his own fate. It will be left to him to say whether he will cross the frontier into Vermont next Wednesday or Thursday or remain in Canada to fight his case indefinitely.

If the habeas corpus proceedings are continued next Wednesday, Thaw, in the opinion of his lawyers, will be freed, re-arrested at once by the Immigration authorities and deported. It may be said on authority that the point of deportation has been selected already as Vermont, and that the deportation papers have been drawn up.

LOST JOY RIDERS SEND POST CARD MAILED IN BOSTON

Two Robust Brothers of Missing Girl Plan Vigorous Measures on Runaway Chauffeurs

A clue to the whereabouts of two young chauffeurs and two girls who vanished from Harlem Wednesday evening, riding in the automobile of Dr. Emil Muller of No. 215 East One Hundred and Twentieth street, was received today in the shape of a souvenir postcard from Boston, signed by one of the party. It is assumed that they went to that city in the doctor's car and notification will be sent to the Boston police to pick them up.

James Murray, twenty-one, of No. 215 East One Hundred and Twentieth street, chauffeur for Dr. Muller, took away the automobile without his employer's knowledge. His companions when he left were Adolph Nehers, another chauffeur; Annie Murphy, sixteen years old, of 209 West One Hundred and Twentieth street, and Katie Ryan, sixteen years old, of No. 128 East One Hundred and Twentieth street.

The party started for Coney Island. Katie Ryan, a sweetheart of Nehers, received the postcard from him this morning and hastened to show it to the mother of Annie Murphy, who has been almost distracted. Katie Ryan has two robust brothers who are intent upon taking a hand in vigorous proceedings as soon as they can locate Murray and Nehers.

STARTED WITH AUTO TO ROUND UP A PARTY.

Murray was sent to Strachman's garage Wednesday afternoon about 5 o'clock with instructions to put up the car and call at the doctor's home the next morning as usual. The chauffeur ran the car into the garage for a few minutes, and was then seen by employees of the establishment driving away with three young girls in the machine. Apparently these girls got a ride of only a few blocks, for about 6 o'clock Murray drove up his empty car in front of the home of Adolph Nehers, nineteen years old, another chauffeur, at No. 153 East One Hundred and Nineteenth street.

Nehers was heard by his mother talking with Murray about taking a ride to Coney Island and getting some girls to go along. Nehers called up his particular friend, a girl named Elsie Werner, of No. 151 East Ninety-seventh street, but learned that she could not go out that evening.

Mrs. Nehers then saw the two young chauffeurs drive off with another young man in the car. Her son waved to her at the window and shouted that they were going to take a little spin. When next seen the automobile was standing at the corner below the Murphy home.

SISTERS HUNTING FOR THE MISSING GIRL.

Mrs. Nehers received a call yesterday from Katie's sisters. The girl was known to Nehers. Mrs. Nehers could not remember the girl's last name today, but said the sisters told her Katie had not been home since Wednesday evening. Nehers, who is employed by another east side physician, has not returned.

"I cannot understand Murray's disappearance," said Dr. Muller today. "He has worked for me for three years and I considered him a most reliable, honest and expert chauffeur. I have to believe he has deliberately stolen my car and abducted a young girl and I expect to hear that there was a bad accident somewhere and none of the persons in the car were able to identify themselves."

Murray's family, at No. 209 West One Hundred and Twentieth street, have heard nothing from him. He had not been living at home, but occupied a room at One Hundred and Twenty-third street and Eighth avenue.

PLUNGED EIGHTEEN STORIES.

CHICAGO, Aug. 23.—Henry Kort-hagen, twenty-six years old, a painter, this afternoon plunged over the observation railing on the eighteenth floor of the Masonic Temple to the famous "death pit" on the ground floor, where more than a score of persons have ended their lives. The man was instantly killed.

POLO GROUNDS, AUG. 23.—About 30,000 fans were out to see the Cubs in their last appearance this year on the receiving end.

EBBETS FIELD, BROOKLYN, N. Y., Aug. 23.—The ideal weather brought out a large assembly of fans to-day to witness the third and farewell game of the season between the Cincinnati Reds and the Brooklyn Dodgers. There were about as many fans present. Manager Tinker was anxious to make a clean sweep of the series and sent Suggs in to do the twirling with Manager Dahlen sent the ex-Cub twirler, Reulbach, with Miller on the receiving end.

FIRST INNING—Reulbach faced a long double to left centre. Bates singled to

MASKED ROBBERS SHOOT TWO MEN IN AUTO HOLDUP

Five in Gang Halt Car Up the State and Open Fire When
$1,000 Is Not Given Them.

BUFFALO, Aug. 23.—Bert P. Gage, forty-five years old, President of the American Bluestone Company at Warsaw, is dying and Kirke Stirell, the same age, bookkeeper of the concern, is seriously wounded as the result of an attempted holdup by a band of highway robbers near the company's quarries today. The men were proceeding to the quarries in an automobile and carried with them $1,000 in currency, which they had drawn from the Warsaw Bank to pay off the employees.

While passing through a stretch of wood about a mile from the quarries five masked men, armed with revolvers and shotguns, leaped from the bushes at the side of the road and with leveled guns demanded the money bag. Gage, who was driving the car, quickly reversed and started to back his machine away.

The robbers fired several shots, and Gage received a gaping wound in the right breast from a gunshot charge. Stirell suffered a revolver shot in his right arm. Both men were taken to the Warsaw Hospital, where it was said this afternoon that Gage would die. The robbery and after the shooting without making any further attempt to get the money. A posse organized by Sheriff George Bauer is scouting the country for the highwaymen.

REVOLT ON M'CALL STARTED IN TAMMANY SILENCED BY MURPHY

Effort of District Leaders to Force
Gaynor on Ticket Is Made in Vain at Meeting of Designating Committee.

BOSS WINS POINT ONLY AFTER STRENUOUS FIGHT

Metz Consents to Run for Comptroller on McCooey's Persuasion
After His Refusal.

Charles F. Murphy was compelled to exercise all his authority as boss this afternoon to jump upon the Democratic City Convention at Tur-race Garden the designation of Judge Edward M. McCall as the Tammany nominee for Mayor. When the convention assembled—and it was the biggest and most earnest Tammany City Convention held in many years—there had developed a surprisingly strong sentiment against Judge McCall on the ground that he is too close to Tammany and Murphy, and as equally surprising demand for the renomination of Mayor Gaynor.

Murphy was asked to consent to an adjournment of the convention until Monday, in order that the leaders may have time to sound the sentiment of their districts. It was pointed out to him that every newspaper in New York except one declared against McCall to-day.

Mr. Murphy refused to listen to anything but his own wishes. He said that McCall would be the strongest candidate. With his personal backing in the organization, it looked as though he had the whip hand when the convention adjourned at 4:15 o'clock for one hour after listening to a speech by Chairman John F. Galvin.

METZ REFUSES NOMINATION ON TICKET.

Herman Metz, the slated candidate for Comptroller, served notice on Murphy before the convention assembled that he wouldn't accept the nomination. Murphy sent for him and insisted that he should go on the ticket. John H. McCooey of Brooklyn added his persuasions. Metz held out as long as he could, but the Murphy lieutenants announced that he would run.

Ex-Congressman Joseph A. Goulden of the Bronx was substituted at the last minute for George M. S. Schultz as the candidate for President of the Board of Aldermen. Mr. Schultz positively refused to go on the ticket.

GALVIN MAKES A KEYNOTE SPEECH TO THE DELEGATES.

Chairman Galvin read a speech which was designated to give a keynote to the coming campaign. It had been carefully worked over and approved by the "Boss" in advance. Next a platform committee was appointed, with Thomas F. Foley as chairman. While waiting for the report of the platform committee, the committee took a recess, so that the real business of designating candidates for Mayor, Comptroller and President of the Board of Aldermen went over until later.
